

0277

SEP 05 2001

550730

18 MS. EMBAKLEN: Oh, you bet. I've been

19 waiting for this all night.

20 MODERATOR BROWN: All right.

21 MS. EMBAKLEN: Good morning. My name is Kate

22 Embaklen. I am the Executive Director of Citizen

23 Alert, and there's been so many incredible people

24 speaking here tonight that I don't have to go on. I

25 think hopefully you've gotten the point, although

0278

1 people have been knocking on your door for 20 years.

2 Sounds like you haven't got a lot of their points yet.

3 But I actually wanted to just go on the legal record

4 and indicate here that it's 2:10 a.m., Pacific Standard

5 Time here in Nevada, and the room, I would guesstimate

6 we still have 60 to perhaps even 80 people in the room,

7 if we included some press folks, and we got some

8 security people in the back.

9 Our security people, looks like we only have

10 about four security personnel that are still in the 11 hearing room. Got a few cameras going. Just wanted to 12 describe this scenario for Secretary Abraham.

13 This is pretty amazing given the fact that

14 this has been a travesty on your part. Shame on you.

---

550730

15 Shame on you, putting Nevadans through this. Shame on

16 you putting Marge Detraz, from having to drive 120

17 miles and testify at 2:00 a.m. That's not public

18 process. That has nothing to do with that. And these

19 hearings have been a sham. And that's all I have to 20 say. Thank you.